RE: Access to Legal Documents, Court order Access to Legal Documents U.S. vs. Edward Snowden

ATTN: Honorable Andrew J. Guilford

My previous lawyer Roman Danner, at The Law Firm Jones Day had submitted to this Court an order to be signed, allowing me to access to my Legal Documents for my 9th Circuit Court of Appeals direct appeal.

I have requested that the Santa Ana Jail forward to me 10 of the 22 boxes of Legal Document that I had in my possession at the Santa Ana Jail for my resentencing.

It is my Legal right and Due process right to have access to ALL of my Legal materials Therefore the B.O.P. Sheridan Federal Prison Camp or the Santa Ana Jail CANNOT restrict nor deny me access to my 10 requested Boxes of Legal materials and Documents.

I am kindly requesting under my 5th, 6th, and 14th Amendment rights to have access to all of my Legal Documents in the 10 Boxes I am requesting in a timely manner.

Therefore I am kindly requesting that the Court send to me a copy of the signed order allowing me access to my 10 boxes of legal documents during my custody in the B.O.P. and during my appeal process.

Secondly, I am requesting to know who my appointed legal counsel is, for my 9th Circuit appeal process. The 9th Circuit stated to me in a document that counsel will be appointed.

Therefore I am kindly requesting to know the Name, Address, Telephone number and e-mail address of my appointed legal counsel.

Again, it is my 5th, 6th and 14th Amendment right to have appointed counsel during my direct appeal.

My above requests are time sensitive as my opening appeal brief is due to be filed on February 27, 2013.

I wish to Thank the Court for your assistance in my having access to ALL my legal documents. As stated the B.O.P. can not restrict my access.

Sincerely

Edward Showalter
